Such orders may include but are not limited to: evaluation and treatment (including involuntary residential treatment) of substance abuse, mental illness, and emotional disturbance; parenting classes; mandatory school attendance; mediation; visitation orders; restraining orders; and other services or activities for the benefit of the child and his or her family. The Court may make a particular placement conditional on compliance with any of the above orders.

The judge or judicial officer shall first question the parent or guardian to determine that they understand the terms of the agreement and consequences of the consent.

The parent or legal guardian may only be excused from responsibility if the youth is under the control of another person as the result of a court order.

B. Admissibility of Evidence.

1. The rules of evidence in State and Federal Court shall not apply in proceedings under this Title. Juveniles will have the same right to evidence as adults in criminal hearings in Tribal Court, subject to the provisions of the Tribal Code on Evidence (Title 19, Chapter 19.01, Section 19.01.06).
2. Where there is more than one kind of evidence about the same subject, the Judge shall give each item of evidence the importance (weight) which, according to the Judge's common sense and sense of fairness, that particular type of evidence deserves. For example, in oral testimony, the testimony of persons who testify from personal knowledge, such as firsthand observation of, or participation in, the event described shall be given more weight than the testimony of persons who only have knowledge of the event which they gained from other persons.
3. Evidence admitted in proceedings under this Title must be related to the issues before the Court or to the weight and credibility which should be given other evidence. When questioned by the Judge or another party as to why certain evidence should be allowed, the party who wishes to present the evidence shall:

- 7. Statements made by the youth to a youth counselor, including statements during a preliminary inquiry, informal adjustment, or pre-dispositional study, shall not be admissible in any proceedings against the youth unless the youth consents to such admission after consulting with their parent(s), guardian, custodian or guardian ad litem.

C. Preliminary Inquiry.

- 1. If a youth is placed in detention or shelter care, pursuant to Section 33.02.06 of this Title, the Court shall conduct a preliminary hearing within seventy-two (72) hours for the purpose of determining:
  - a. Whether probable cause exists to believe the youth committed the alleged delinquent act; and
  - b. Whether continued detention or shelter care is necessary pending further proceedings.
- 2. If the youth has been released to their parent(s), guardian, or custodian, the Court shall conduct a preliminary inquiry within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the complaint for the sole purpose of determining whether probable cause exists to believe the youth committed the alleged delinquent act.
- 3. If the youth's parent(s), guardian, or custodian is not present at the preliminary inquiry, the Court shall make an inquiry into what efforts have been made to notify and to obtain the presence of the parent(s), guardian, or custodian, and:
  - a. If the youth is not being held in a detention or shelter care facility and if it appears that further efforts are likely to produce the appearance of the youth's parent(s), guardian, or custodian, the Court may continue the proceedings for no more than thirty (30) days; or
  - b. If the youth is being held in a detention or shelter care facility, or if it appears that the youth's parent(s), guardian, or custodian is/are unable or unwilling to provide effective support or guidance to the youth during the proceedings, the Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to serve until final adjudication and disposition of the complaint.

4. The Court shall hear testimony concerning:
    - a. The circumstances that gave rise to the complaint and/or the taking of the youth into custody; and
    - b. The need for detention or shelter care.
  5. If the Court finds that probable cause exists to believe the youth committed the delinquent act, the youth shall be ordered by the Court to appear at a fact-finding hearing which shall be held no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the Preliminary Hearing. The youth shall be released to their parent(s), guardian, or custodian unless the alleged act is serious enough to warrant detention or shelter care and:
    - a. There is reasonable cause to believe that the youth will be unavailable for further proceedings if released; or
    - b. There is reasonable cause to believe that the youth will commit a serious act causing damage to person or property.
  6. The Court may release a youth, pursuant to subsection 5., above, to a relative or other responsible Tribal citizen, if the parent(s), guardian, or custodian consents to the release.
  7. If probable cause to believe the youth committed the alleged delinquent act is not found, the complaint shall be dismissed and the youth released.
- D. Fact-Finding Hearing.
1. The Court shall conduct a fact-finding hearing for the sole purpose of determining whether the youth committed the alleged delinquent act.
  2. The Court shall hear evidence concerning the circumstances which gave rise to the complaint.
  3. If the youth admits the allegations of the complaint, the Court shall proceed to the dispositional hearing only if the Court finds:
    - a. The youth fully understands their rights, as set forth in Section 33.02.04 of this Title, and fully understands the potential consequences of their admission(s);
    - b. The youth voluntarily, intelligently, and knowingly admits to all facts necessary to constitute a basis for Court jurisdiction; and

- c. The youth has not, in their admission to the allegations, set forth facts which, if found to be true, constitute a defense to the allegations.
  4. If the allegations of the petition are sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the Court shall find that the youth is a juvenile offender and shall schedule a dispositional hearing.
  5. If the allegations of the petition are not sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the complaint shall be dismissed and the youth released.
  6. A finding that a youth is a juvenile offender shall constitute a final order for purposes of appeal.
- E. Fact Finding Hearing Continuances. Continuances of a fact-finding hearing may be granted upon:
  1. Motion of the youth for good cause shown;
  2. Motion of the presenting officer that material evidence or witnesses are unavailable, a finding by the Court that the presenting officer has exercised due diligence to obtain the evidence or appearance of witnesses, and that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the evidence will become available or that the witnesses will appear; or
  3. Order of the Court during a period of mediation pursuant to Section 33.02.09 of this Title.
- F. Predisposition Report.
  1. The Presenting Officer, after consulting the Youth Counselor, shall prepare a written report describing all reasonable and appropriate alternative dispositions. The report shall contain a specific plan for the rehabilitation of the youth designed to resolve the problems presented in the fact-finding hearing.
  2. The report shall contain an explanation of the necessity of the proposed disposition plan and its benefits to the youth.
  3. Preference shall be given to the disposition alternatives which are listed in subsection H., below, of this section. The alternatives least restrictive of the youth's freedom, which are consistent with the interests of the Tribe, shall be selected.
  4. If the report recommends detention or shelter care, it shall state the specific reasons underlying its recommendation.
  5. The Presenting Officer shall provide the Court, the youth, and the youth's parent(s), guardian, custodian or guardian ad litem, with a copy of the report at least two (2) business days prior to the disposition hearing.

2. The Court shall take testimony and receive evidence concerning the proper disposition at the hearing.
3. The Court shall consider the predisposition report submitted by the Presenting Officer. The Court shall also consider any alternative predisposition reports prepared by the youth, the youth's counsel, or the youth's parent(s), guardian, custodian, or guardian ad litem.
4. The disposition order constitutes a final order for purposes of appeal.

H. Disposition Alternatives.

1. If a youth has been found to be a youth offender, the Court shall order a disposition containing one or more of the following alternatives, for any term, until the youth reaches the age of twenty-one (21):
  - a. Order the youth to spend a period of time with an adult who is knowledgeable about traditional tribal customs and values for training and instruction regarding such customs and values.
  - b. Place the youth on probation, subject to conditions set by the Court. Such conditions may include, but are not limited to, drug and alcohol evaluation and treatment, anger management training, continued education, job training, participation in extracurricular activities (sports, music, schools sponsored clubs, etc.), and community service. A youth on probation shall be required to report to the Court on a regular basis regarding the fulfillment of the conditions set by the Court. If the youth does not comply with the conditions set by the Court, the probation may be revoked and the youth may be fined or ordered to detention as set out in subsections d. and e., below.
  - c. Order the youth to make restitution for any injury resulting from the offense.
  - d. Impose a fine not greater than the maximum fine that could be imposed on the youth had they been an adult at the time the criminal offense was committed.
  - e. Order detention or shelter care for a period of time not to exceed the jail sentence that could have been imposed on the youth had they been an adult at the time the criminal offense was committed.
  - f. Order the parent(s), guardian or custodian of the youth to supervise the rehabilitation of the youth. Such supervision may include requiring the parent(s), guardian or custodian to accompany the youth when the youth is attending a training or treatment program ordered by the Court.

- K. Enforcement of Judgments. The Jamestown Tribal Court may utilize appropriate enforcement techniques, both before and after entry of judgments, to ensure collection of unpaid judgments including appropriation of funds that are due to a judgment debtor.

Section 33.02.09 Mediation of Disputes

1. At the time of the preliminary inquiry or any time thereafter prior to the fact-finding hearing, any party may request that a mediation hearing be held.
2. The request shall be in the form of a motion to the Court and shall include a proposed mediator for the hearing.
3. The Judge shall allow a mediation hearing to be held if they find that a mediator is available, that the parties are willing to attempt to resolve the dispute by informal means, and that the public interest will not be harmed by an informal resolution.

B. Mediator.

1. The Court shall appoint a mediator to preside over the mediation hearing. A mediator must be over eighteen (18) years of age and must be able to preside over the mediation in an impartial manner. Preference should be given to Tribal elders or other citizens of the Tribal community who have knowledge of informal dispute resolution procedures.

E. Results of Mediation Hearing.

1. The mediator shall present the results of the mediation hearing to the Court at the time of the fact-finding hearing or at any time prior thereto.

2. If, after questioning the parties, the judge is satisfied that an informal resolution of the dispute has been reached, they may delay the fact-finding hearing and order the parties to comply with the terms of the mediation agreement. The Judge shall dismiss the charges against the youth after all the terms of the agreement have been satisfied.
3. If a mediation agreement was not reached at the hearing or if the parties do not comply with the terms of the agreement, the Court shall proceed with trial. Anything spoken by the youth at the mediation hearing or the results thereof may not be used as evidence at the time of fact-finding, or during sentencing, without the youth's consent.

Section 33.02.10 Discovery

  1. A party who receives a request for information under this rule shall respond either with the information, with an indication when and where the information will be made available, or with an objection to the request within ten (10) days after they receive the request. Failure to respond is grounds for a Court order requiring response.
  2. If the parties disagree about whether a party is required to provide information requested pursuant to this rule, the judge shall decide. The judge may impose reasonable conditions on the release of information requested under this rule.

Section 33.02.11 Subpoena

Section 33.03.01 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to provide a procedure for a parent or guardian to obtain a court order declaring that he or she has the authority to make decisions relating to the tribal issues of enrollment, relinquishment of enrollment, and/or distribution of per capita payments for a Jamestown minor.

Such an order may be obtained regardless of whether there is a prior court order establishing legal custody or guardianship of the minor.

This Chapter is intended to establish decision making authority as it exists between parents and guardians. It is not intended to alter or diminish the Jamestown Tribe's authority to adopt rules and procedures related to enrollment, or disenrollment.

Section 33.03.02 Petition for Decision Making Authority – How to File

Any parent or guardian of a Jamestown minor may seek an order granting them authority to make enrollment decisions for the minor by filing a petition with the Court. If petitioner is seeking decision making authority for more than one minor, a separate petition should be filed for each minor.

Section 33.03.03 Petition for Decision Making Authority – Contents

The petition shall be a true and correct statement signed and sworn by the petitioner and shall include:

- A. The name, date of birth, address, and tribal status of the minor;
- B. The name, address, and tribal status of the parent or guardian seeking the custody declaration;
- C. The name, address, and tribal status of the minor's other natural parent, if such information is known;

- F. A statement as to why it is in the best interest of the minor for the petitioner to be granted the authority to make decisions regarding enrollment and per capita distribution for the minor; and
- G. Any additional information the parent believes would assist the Court in its decision.

Section 33.03.04 Service of Petition/Court Procedure

- A. A petition for Tribal decision-making authority shall be served in the manner provided in Section 33.01.09 of this Title upon any non-petitioning parent or legal guardian.

Section 33.03.05 Setting the Hearing

The Court Clerk shall schedule a hearing before the Jamestown Court to take place no later than sixty (60) days from the date the petition is filed. A notice of hearing shall be mailed or delivered to the petitioner and any person entitled to notice under Section 33.03.04 of this Title.

Section 33.03.06 Preferences

In determining whether a parent or guardian should be given authority to make enrollment decisions, the court shall be guided by the following principles:

- A. A parent or guardian who has received a previous order granting him or her legal custody or guardianship over the tribal member child shall be presumed to be the person who should be making the decisions.
- B. If neither of the child's parents has a court order awarding custody and there is no person with legal guardianship over the minor, the court shall take the following into consideration, but shall ultimately be guided by what is in the best interest of the child:

  - 2. How long the child has been in a particular parent or guardian's custody;
  - 3. The tribal status of each parent or guardian;
  - 4. Whether an individual's previous decisions regarding tribal issues have been in the best interest of the child; and
  - 5. Whether the parent or guardian's intentions for future decisions are in the best interest of the child.
- C. If the minor child is sixteen (16) years of age or older, the court may take the opinions of the minor into consideration when making its decision.

Section 33.03.07 Order Granting Decision Making Authority for Tribal Issues

- A. The Court shall enter a written order declaring that the petitioner has the authority to make enrollment and per capita distribution decisions for a Jamestown minor if it determines that it is in the best interest of the child to do so.
- B. It shall be the responsibility of the parent receiving the order to provide a copy of the order to the Tribal Chairman, the tribe's Chief Financial Officer and the Enrollment staff.

Section 33.03.08 Effective Date of Order

An order granting decision making authority shall become effective sixty (60) days after it is signed by the Tribal Court judge.

Section 33.03.09 Duration of Order

An order granting decision making authority shall remain in effect until:
