The Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe is a dedicated partner to many on the Olympic Peninsula and beyond. We are always exploring new ways to better support our own Tribal community and the greater surrounding communities. Successful partnerships are created through open dialogue and mutually beneficial interests.

Please describe how your organization may benefit from partnering with the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe?

**Every Tribe is a unique sovereign nation with its own governing principals, codes and laws. Unless selected by a consortium of Tribal leaders, one Native American does not represent many Tribes. Furthermore, it is not sufficient to simply have any Tribal citizen speak for the entire nation, unless they have been elected or appointed to do so on behalf of their Tribe.*

Submit form to:      Jessica Payne, Chief Operations Officer by email at jpayne@jamestowntribe.org,
