From Our Chairman: Tribal Services for our Citizens

By W. Ron Allen, Chairman/CEO Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe

Greetings Tribal Citizens!!!

By the time you read this, most of our election results are in for Indian Country and our Tribe. Congrats to Loni and the confirmation of what great work she has been doing as our Tribal Vice-Chair. Also, congratulations to whoever wins our Tribal Treasurer position. We are all on the same mission to continue the goals and objectives of providing more and better services for our citizens.

Several questions surfaced from our Tribal General Council meeting on October 5th that I'd like to address from my perspective.

We have tried adding additional general citizenship meetings and what happens is the number of participants keeps dropping off and it becomes questionable in value to all who participate. Another request was that we use a meeting to go over the Annual Report. In my opinion, if one has questions about a program or service, that person should just ask us. Any of our Council or Program Directors are willing to go into greater detail, including budget questions.

The report is structured to provide an 'eagle view,' but with a few examples. I firmly feel for a small Tribe like ours, we are ahead of the class in the number and quality of services we provide for our citizens.

One great example is our 'out-of-the-area' health care reimbursement program, that is now at $2,500/year on top of numerous exemptions due to special health circumstances. We recently expanded our policy to cover travel expenses for those who have special transportation needs due to dialysis or cancer treatments. Very few tribes provide such a benefit, even the ones who have much greater unrestricted revenue than ours. We cover travel expenses if you must travel long distances to participate in our cultural events. And the last example is our Youth Summer Intern program that gives our youth an opportunity to gain valuable work experience.. I raise these facts because they may not meet the desires of some citizens, but we are always looking for new options to improve and expand services to all our citizens that we feel the Tribe can afford.

One of our community challenges is the perception that because we have become so successful over the past number of years, that we can do even more than we are doing. It is the old adage that 'success breeds higher expectations'. We think you hit a great 'milestone' achievement, but the community's expectations move the goal a little further down the road.

I am proud of how far we have come as Tribe that has continued to develop our governmental operations, expanded our programs and services and continue to develop our business portfolio to generate unrestricted revenue for the growth and desired goals for our future.

We have grown fast for a small Tribe. We now employ over a thousand people. We always look for better ways to serve our community, balancing the big picture of protecting our sovereignty, Treaty rights and traditional ways with the day-to-day needs of our community. We know it is never enough but we have an amazing team and we're always pursuing our Self-Reliance goal to become less dependent on the federal government. Many might wonder how big is 'big enough,' but because of these many community challenges and expectations, we have a ways to go.

I trust that you all have faith in our efforts to always serve our community, elders, veterans and families in the forefront of our minds.

Again, congratulations to our newly elected Jamestown leaders and we will continue on our Self-Governance and Self-Reliance journey.

Remember if you have questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to me either at rallen@jamestowntribe.org or my cell phone (206) 369-6699.

God Bless, Ron

Voting in Tribal elections is important for several reasons:

Self-Determination: Tribal elections empower Tribal Citizens to choose their leaders and influence decisions that affect community, reinforcing self-governance and autonomy.

Representation: Elected leaders are accountable. Voting ensures that diverse voices and perspectives within the Tribe are heard and represented.

Cultural Preservation: By voting, Tribal Citizens help maintain cultural heritage and ensure that it is valued in governance.

Natural Resource Management: Tribal governments often make decisions regarding land, resources, and economic development. Voting allows members to influence these critical issues, impacting their livelihoods and environment.

Community Engagement: Participating in elections builds a sense of community and belonging, encouraging Tribal Citizens to engage in discussions about their future and collaborate on shared goals.

Tribal Council Election Statement: Vice-Chairperson

Incumbent Candidate - Loni Grinnell-Greninger

?áy'skwáči (Good Day) Tribal Citizens and Families!

mán cn ?u? há?nəŋ (Thank you very much) for your gift of time in reading my letter. For this election cycle, I am seeking your support and vote to remain as the Vice Chairwoman.

My traditional name is yúčci?ə ("yooch-see-uh"), and my English name is Loni Grinnell-Greninger. My S'Klallam heritage comes from the Prince Family: Kurt Grinnell, Elaine James Grinnell, Mildred "Mickey" Prince Judson, David Prince and Elizabeth Hunter Prince, lakánəm (Prince of Wales), čičməhán (Chetzemoka), and lakánəm who was the youngest son of the House of stətítəm.

In these last four years of serving you as Vice Chair, I am filled with gratitude for everything I have learned and the advocacy I have been able to participate in from here at home, all the way to the federal level. I give credit to the Creator, our ancestors, previous Tribal Council members, our Tribal Citizenship and families. I take comfort in the grace you all have afforded me as I learn. Because of our families past and present, as well as thinking about our families in the future, I am filled with confidence to speak up and work diligently on behalf of our Tribe.

I would like to list a few accomplishments from the last four years, fully understanding that these accomplishments do not only belong to me, but to everyone I listed above. In partnership with our previous and current Tribal Councils, I have been able to participate in the following:

- Supporting the work of Jamestown program staff, who are working to adjust program policies that attempt to meet the various needs of our tribal community, both in-area and out-of-area. This summary list of policy change examples include:
 - Increase the out-of-area health benefit from $2,000 to $2,500.
 - Expand flexibility for spending in the Enrichment Program.
 - Increase the General Welfare Scholarship in the Higher Education Program from $3,000 to $4,000.
 - Decreasing the geoduck harvest tax from 50% to 45% so that geoduck divers can keep 5% more income.
 - Supporting the creation of the Culture Department.
 - Property purchases to increase tribal housing, commercial housing, habitat restoration, river restoration, treaty harvest access, economic development, and program and enterprise expansion.
 - Updates to tribal housing properties, tribal program and enterprise buildings.
 - Support construction of new buildings: 7 Cedar Hotel, Dungeness River Nature Center, Jamestown Beach pavilion and kitchen, Healing Clinic, expanded Mental Health counseling. Under planning: Elders Housing, Youth Center, expanded Dental Clinic, Phase 2 of Healing Clinic (Evaluation & Treatment Center).
 - Increased cyber security.
 - Support staff promotion and expansion (which includes Tribal Citizen and Descendant employees).
 - Support the new Tribal Veterans Representative Program Agreement between the Tribe and WA Veterans Administration.
 - Support a healthy tribal-wide budget, balancing opportunity and stability. Our staff (both tribal and non-tribal) are very successful at obtaining grants, which frees up tribal income to support the program activities that do not fit within grant funding objectives.
 - Charitable donations to the local community: hospital, fire department, school districts, sports teams, Tribal Citizen participation in special events, etc.
 - Campaign contributions to local, state and congressional representatives who advocate for Indian Country.

- Provide community education, providing presentations to local groups on tribal history and culture.
- Supporting Jamestown and Olympic Peninsula Tribes at the local level:
 - Participate as Jamestown Representative on the Clallam County Homelessness Taskforce, where I discuss with local partners on services to prevent and respond to homelessness, being culturally competent with American Indian/Alaska Native clients, update the County's five-year plan to address homelessness, and help determine local awardees for grant and county funding.
 - Participate as one of four Tribally Appointed Representatives on the Dungeness River Nature Center Board, where I provide consultation with the Center on educational programming, grant submissions, budget approval, strategic planning, property enhancements, and fundraising.
- Supporting Jamestown and Indian Country's tribal sovereignty at the state level:
 - Preside as Chair of the following WA State Councils/Committees, facilitating discussion on how to strategize and implement state social services in a way that more meets the needs of Tribal Governments and their tribal families, including increasing grant fund directly to Tribes to serve their communities.
 - WA Governor's Tribal Leaders Social Services Council;
 - WA Department of Social & Health Services Indian Policy Advisory Committee;
 - WA Department of Children, Youth & Families Tribal Policy Advisory Committee; and
 - WA Department of Corrections Indian Policy Advisory Committee.
 - Participate in lobbying for (or against) state legislative bills that affect Tribes, through editing bill language and providing written and verbal testimony in front of legislative representatives and advocating for legislative funding for Jamestown projects that serve tribal and non-tribal community members. The latest example is Tribal Council creating relationship and sharing our story with legislative members to obtain full funding for Phase 2 of the Healing Clinic, as well as funding for evaluation and design for roundabout construction at unsafe traffic areas. These fundings have allowed Jamestown to keep our monies at home.
 - Participate in WA state rulemaking processes with WA Agency and Tribal Leaders so that state policies, programs, and laws do not adversely affect Tribes. The latest example is with WA Department of Natural Resources and the rulemaking process for commercial finfish net pen operations on state leased lands.
 - Participate in the tribal-state strategy to respond to the opioid/fentanyl epidemic.
- Support Jamestown and Indian Country's tribal sovereignty at the federal level:
 - Preside as Chair of the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (U.S. HHS) Administration for Children & Families (ACF) Tribal Advisory Committee, facilitating discussion on how to strategize and implement federal social services in a way that more meets the needs of Tribal Governments and their tribal families, including increasing grant funds directly to Tribes to serve their communities. This also includes getting involved in the federal budget process, expanding or updating programs and laws, making funding processes easier for tribes, change policy to allow tribes freedom to choose who they serve in their communities, creating relationship with congressional members, and providing verbal and written testimony in the budget process.
 - Co-facilitate or participate in Tribal Consultations for U.S. HHS programs, providing official input in how programs can be evolved to be better for Tribes to implement.
 - Provide presentations to tribal-federal advisory bodies on the work being completed by the U.S. HHS ACF Tribal Advisory Committee.
 - Collaboration with other federal agencies such as the Department of Justice, FBI, Bureau of Indian Affairs, and White House Council on Indian Affairs, where programming is congruent with tribalfederal social services.

There has been so much opportunity in these last four years to grow in advocacy for the Jamestown Tribe. I am hopeful for your support to continue in the next four years as I sharpen my skills to work better for you and continue to gain more state and federal resources for our Tribe. Again, I sincerely thank you for your time in reading this letter. It is difficult to fit all of one's thoughts into one article, so I will follow up with a letter to each Tribal Citizen household to discuss my goals and thoughts on special issues for the next four years. Should you have any questions, please contact me at 360-681-4660 or Igreninger@jamestowntribe.org. Until next time! há?nen cn! (Thank you!)

Tribal Council Election Statement: Treasurer

Candidate - Ricky Johnson

My name is Ricky Johnson, and I am running for the Treasurer position of Tribal Council.

I've had the privilege of serving in two key positions that have given me first-hand experience in understanding the needs of our community and Tribal Citizens. As the former Elder Program Manager and current Grants Specialist for Social and Community Services, I've worked hard to secure funding that supports our Elders and other important community programs. This work has taught me a lot about managing resources, navigating complex funding processes, and making sure our programs are sustainable for the long term.

But my commitment to our Tribe goes beyond my job. I've been an active volunteer in our community, from coaching youth soccer in Sequim to representing tribal Elder issues at the regional level. These experiences have strengthened my connection to our people and deepened my understanding of the challenges we face. I make it a priority to listen to our citizens, especially our Elders, and stay in tune with their needs at a grassroots level. Some of you may have received friend requests from me on Facebook within the past year—this is because I believe social media offers another valuable way to connect with you, especially those I don't get to see frequently and those who live out-of-area. I am thankful I get to learn about your history and families, understand your challenges, and hear about your dreams. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your lives and hear your stories.

As a dedicated family man and father, I am guided by a sense of duty to serve my people and promise to bring my experiences, dedication, and strong commitment to transparency and accountability to the position of treasurer. I'll work hard to keep our Tribe's finances healthy and to make sure our resources are used in ways that truly benefit our community. I would be honored to serve as your Treasurer, and I'm asking for your support.

Thank you for considering me.

Ricky Johnson (Allen Family)

Tribal Council Election Statement: Treasurer

Candidate - LaTrisha Suggs

Greeting Tribal Citizens, I am asking for your vote as the next Tribal Council Treasurer. I am from the Cook-Kardonsky family, my mom is Theresa Lehman. My grandmother is the late Leona Cope, my great grandmother is the late Lillian Kardonsky, my great-great grandmother is the late Nora Cook, my great-great grandfather is the late John Cook. I am the great niece of the late Annie Balch, who served as Tribal Council Secretary, 1988-1999.

I have a Bachelor of Environmental Policy & Planning from Western Washington University, over 400 hours of federal acquisition regulation training, and an Association of Washington Cities Certificate of Municipal Leadership. I have worked in Natural Resources for Tribal governments for 23 years. I am the restoration planner for Jamestown Natural Resources, Habitat Program.

I serve on the City of Port Angeles Council, as a council member, since 2020. I was appointed to fill a vacated Council seat, Position 1, and then in 2021 I successfully ran for City Council and won. Combined my Tribal board experience totals 25 years. I serve on the Health Committee, Economic Development Authority (EDA), Cannabis Board, Washington Water Trust, and the North Olympic Peninsula Lead Entity. I also serve on the following boards for the city: Clallam County Marine Resources, Solid Waste Advisory Board, & William Shore Memorial Pool board.

Self-determination, the ability to "freely determine our political status and to freely pursue economic, social and cultural development." Sovereignty, treaty rights, self-governance and determination remain top priorities. I will work alongside council members, and Tribal organizations to preserve, protect, and strengthen our inherent Rights and chip away at policy frameworks constrained by Federal institutions that impacts Sovereignty and Self-Governance.

Economic enterprise diversification through the Economic Development Authority (EDA) is vital. When appointed to the EDA the organization relied on the Tribal Government to operate & for loans. The EDA board rolled up their sleeves, along with staff, & Tribal Council, and began asking hard questions about how businesses were operating. Now EDA funds itself through a business tax, no longer relies on the tribal government, maintains cash on hand, diversified, and has established assets. Changes resulted in expansion of the Jamestown Excavation from 3 to 28 employees while branching into surveying & concrete services, Jamestown Capital established, Jamestown Property management for Commercial & residential properties established, construction of a cell tower completed, survived Covid-19, Carlsborg Self-Storage expanded, Cedars Greens opened, Jamestown Networks performs strongly, & recent acquisition of the former KOA campgrounds off O'Brien Road. As a Tribal Council member, I will continue to support diversifying economic opportunities, increase available cash on hand for EDA, and continue to pay down debt

As a member of the Health Committee, I supported our covid-19 pandemic response, development of the out-of-area reimbursement program, branching into pediatrics dental, increase for eyeglass reimbursement, and expansion into the Behavioral Health and Wellness center behind Costco. I will continue to support programs that help citizens achieve their desired wellness goals.

The Tribes 2019 Housing Solutions study looked at elder, workforce, transitional, emergency, and multifamily housing options. The focus is on elderly housing at River Rd. & Silberhorn, which is near services and amenities. The study identified 65-107 housing units needed for elders, individuals & households aged 55+yrs. I support the needs identified in the study and will work with Tribal council to ensure the project moves forward.

I support lowering blood quantum for citizenship. The path to make this happen will come from community input and discussion along with analysis of how this change will impact existing services, & how those services will change to meet the needs of a larger population. I also feel it is vital to maintain the level of service to our existing population while looking at ways to expand citizenship. The Tribe should be inclusive of direct Jamestown S'Klallam descendants who are actively involved in our community.

Elders have guided Tribal programs & services since recognition and before. I support programs, services, activities, & opportunities for our elders. The Tribes elder population is the fastest growing age bracket. Volunteers of the year have historically gone to elders; another example of their continued contribution to the community.

Please vote for LaTrisha Suggs for Tribal Council Treasurer.

Respectfully

LaTrisha Suggs latrishaos@hotmail.com

Tribal Council Election Statement: Treasurer

Candidate - Josh Chapman

Greetings, my Fellow Tribal Citizens,

My name is Josh Chapman, and I am proud to come from the Johnson/Wood family on my father's side and the Hall family on my mother's side. As a proud Jamestown S'Klallam citizen, I am honored to announce my candidacy for Tribal Council Treasurer, a position where I believe my experience and dedication to our community can make a significant difference.

For over 20 years, I have served on the JKT Gaming Board of Directors at 7 Cedars, gaining extensive experience in business management and financial oversight. I have also served as the Natural Resources Tribal Policy Liaison for the past three years, advocating for our Tribe's Treaty Rights and working closely with key stakeholders, including Sister Tribes and the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW). Since 2021, I've had the privilege of chairing the Natural Resources Committee, where I've focused on preserving our resources for future generations while ensuring that our current fishery and environmental protection needs are met.

In addition to my Tribal leadership roles, I've been running a successful fishing and seafood business for the past 20 years. My business experience extends to 13 years in the car industry, with the last 8 of those years in management. These combined experiences have given me a strong understanding of financial management, budgeting, and accountability—skills that will directly support my work as Treasurer.

Along with my sons Matthew and Liam, I am proud to be a Tribal fisherman. Protecting our fisheries has been a key part of my work, both as a member of the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission (NWIFC) and the Point No Point Treaty Council (PNPTC). My efforts to hold the State accountable for its lack of monitoring and reporting have resulted in shorter state fishery openings and increased enforcement for recreational fishermen—steps that benefit our Tribal community and our natural resources.

I've worked alongside Tribes, the State, the Navy, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Environmental Protection Agency, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and other government agencies to ensure that our Treaty Rights are protected, and I will bring this same commitment to the role of Treasurer.

My goal for our Tribe is to ensure the transparent and responsible management of our Tribe's financial resources while supporting initiatives that promote long-term growth and sustainability. Good fiscal management is essential for any business, and I would like to bring those skills, expertise, and experience into the position of Treasurer.

I am very aware that there are many needs within our Tribe and community, including housing, education, and health care. My family and I are proud of our heritage and culture, and I would like the opportunity to continue the great work of our past Councils.

I am excited for the opportunity to serve you and work together toward a brighter future for our Tribe. I humbly ask for your support and vote.

Sincerely,

Josh Chapman Natural Resources Tribal Liaison Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe Cell (360)461-5860

2024 Elders Annual Luncheon

On September 26, 2024, the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe and 7 Cedars Resort hosted the Annual Elders Luncheon. This year's event drew over 260 people, with Elders visiting from Halalt First Nations, Sechelt Nation, Nooksack, Elwha, Steilacoom, Suquamish, Quinault, Makah, Tulalip, Skokomish, and Chehalis. The event was a great success and enjoyed by everyone who attended. Jamestown Tribal Government staff and Citizen volunteers put together a range of gift baskets that were given out to attendees. Black Diamond Junction, the Olympic Peninsula's "Best Live Band" provided entertainment for the event, and they did a fantastic job. There was even a photobooth! The food was deliciously prepared by the fabulous staff at 7 Cedars Resort, serving up chicken marsala, clams, oysters, garlic mashed potatoes, vegetable medley, green salad, fruit salad, dinner roll and a dessert of lemon cake and cheesecake. A big thank you to everyone who made this year's Elder Luncheon Event a success.

A Guide to Reducing Your Bills and Your Carbon Footprint

By: Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe Natural Resources Department

Climate change poses threats to our health, our safety, and our economy. Several national policies and state programs now make it possible for all Washingtonians to step up and be a part of the solution. New incentives and programs are helping families reduce energy costs, reduce reliance on fossil fuels, and keep our air clean. If you are curious about how you can take advantage of the historic energy rebate and tax credit opportunities, make your home more comfortable for the cool season, and save on bills, then check out the programs below with links to learn more.

Rebates and other incentives are available from your electric utility provider, the State of Washington and the federal government.

Utility Rebates:

Clallam County PUD offers a wide variety of rebates and incentives to help make your home more energy efficient. Getting a PUD rebate is like being paid to save on your utility bills while making your home more comfortable. Most of our incentives with our participating installers work so that the incentive is taken right off your installer bill, so you don't have to pay in advance and then wait for your rebate from the PUD.

Rebates and incentives are offered on a variety of energy efficient home upgrades including:

Ductless Heat Pumps Save hundreds of dollars a year on your electric heating bill by upgrading to an energy-efficient heating and cooling system. Heat pump systems include air conditioning so you can stay cool in the summer, and cozy in the winter.

Window Replacement Upgrading your windows can limit cold drafts in your home, reduce condensation around window trim, and reduce the heating load for your home.

Insulation Increasing insulation levels in homes make them more comfortable, reduce heating needs and lower your electric bills

ENERGY STAR Washers and Dryers

There's more! Check out all the specific programs on the PUD Residential Programs webpage: https://clallampud.net/ residential-programs/ OR contact: (360) 565-3249 • Utility.Services.Info@clallampud.net to speak with a program manager about the programs and associated requirements.

City of Port Angeles also offers rebates that can lower your utility bill and improve the comfort of your home.

Residential Rebates are offered for the installation of:

Ductless Heat Pumps Insultation Windows Water Conservation Heat Pump Water Heaters Free Weatherization Program

The City of Port Angeles Low Income Program offers increased incentives for both homeowners and tenants in the city. This program has offered many homeowners in Port Angeles free or reduced costs while they are upgrading their home. Click here to learn more and find out if you qualify.

If approved, you will become eligible for the following:

Windows: Up to $20/square foot of glass

Insulation: Up to 100% of the cost of qualifying installations

Ductless Heat Pump: Up to $6,000 toward the installation of a qualifying unit

Heat Pump Water Heater: Up to $3,000 for qualifying water heater

Washington State Incentives:

Washington EV Instant Rebate Program launched a program that will provide up to $9,000 off a new EV lease for low-income drivers at point-of-sale, bringing lease payments under $200 a month on several popular electric models. Washington is the first state to prioritize low-cost leases as part of an EV incentive program. To learn more, visit: https://waevinstantrebates.org/eligibility/ and find out if you are eligible

Washington Sales Tax Exemptions

Sales Tax exemption for electric vehicles and plug-in hybrids. The exemption applies to dealer and private sales of new, used, and leased vehicles sold on or after August 1, 2019.

- New vehicle transactions must not exceed $45,000 in purchase price or lease payments
- Used vehicles transactions must not exceed $30,000 in fair market value or lease payments

You cannot use a trade-in to lower the price of a vehicle to meet the exemption limits. If you have questions, you can call the Department of Revenue's (DOR) Tax Assistance line at 360-705-6705.

Federal Incentives:

Clean Vehicle Tax Credits

Switching to an EV will reduce your carbon footprint and save you money in fuel costs each year.

New Plug-in and Fuel Cell Electric Vehicles Purchased in or after 2023

Get a tax credit of up to $7,500 for new vehicles purchased in or after 2023!

Pre-Owned Plug-in and Fuel Cell Electric Vehicles Purchased in or after 2023

Get a credit of up to $4,000 for used vehicles purchased from a dealer for $25,000 or less! The amount equals 30% of purchased price, with a maximum credit of $4,000. Other requirements apply.

New Plug-in and Fuel Cell Electric Vehicles Purchased Before 2023

Get a tax credit of up to $7,500 for new vehicles purchased before 2023! The amount varies based on battery capacity and manufacturer phase-out.

Library Corner

Happy November! Stop in the library to get a library card and check out a book, visit the cultural exhibits, watch a documentary short in the library theater or join us for one of these great library programs:

In celebration of Native Heritage Month, the library is pleased to offer the following drop-in programs:

In the theater every Tuesday in November at 11am, the library will feature a recording from the Indigenous Speaker Series.com. This series is "A Platform Promoting Place-based Indigenous Knowledges, Indigenized Research and Future Generations." The Series started to come into materialization in 2015 by Dr. Michelle Montgomery through community conversations. The series amplifies voices of Indigenous people and promotes a dialogue about Indigenous people's cultural and traditional lived experiences. Visit the website to learn more and view these recordings and more.

November 5th Dr. Marco Hatch (Samish Indian Nation) - Clam Gardens: a place of community and learning

November 12th Rose High-Bear (Deg Hit'an Dine, Inupiaq) - Your Journey of Transformation - Wisdom of the Elderberry Farm

November 26th Leanna Goose (Anishinaabeg)- Wisdom of the Ancestors: Indigenous Approaches to Climate Justice

Drop-In Writers Workshop - Wednesday afternoons in November, (6, 13, 20, & 27th) from 3-4:30 pm. Stop in the library and find inspiration and a space to write with other indigenous writers in the community. Staff will be present and provide a weekly writing prompt. You may also use the opportunity to write, talk, and support other writers. This program will continue beyond November.

Gaming Saturdays with TTRPG (Table-Top Role Playing Games)

Library staff are thrilled to be bringing TTRPG and a weekly drop in game days to the library on Saturdays from 1-3pm.

While card and board games will be available every week, on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month library staff will lead a TTRPG game Coyote and Crow, a science fantasy roleplaying game set in an uncolonized future. For more information about Coyote and Crow, visit coyoteandcrow.net. There will be additional games available to play during the program including NAASII and WOLVES, also developed by Coyote and Crow Developer, Connor Alexander (Cherokee Nation). Reach out to the library for more information.

The library has been offering Prime Time Family Reading, an early literacy program for youth ages 6-11, and their families at the Dungeness Nature River Center from 5 to 7pm on Mondays. The program is ending on Monday, November 4th. Please feel free to join us at our last celebratory session. Contact library@jamestowntribe.org or call (360) 681-4632 to participate in similar reading and library events.

The program was held at the Dungeness Nature River Center from 5 to 7pm on Mondays. Facilitated by Tribal Elder Michael Lowe (Chubby/Lowe family) and Library staff Tayona Heller (Prince family). Families received copies of 11 books shared during the program, shared in a free meal, and received gift cards and door prizes for their participation.

Open House and Library Card launch – Coming soon are NEW physical library cards. Celebrate Native Heritage Month with the library at an open house on Monday, November 25th from 4-6pm, enjoy a warm beverage and snack, and pick up your NEW library card.

BOOKMOBILE!

Tribal Elders interested in receiving Jamestown book deliveries at home or at the Elder's Lounge can reach out to library staff in person, by email at library@jamestowntribe.org, or by phone at 360-681- 4632. Ask for Brandon or Cheryl.

Library hours are Monday to Friday from 9am to 5pm and Saturdays 10am to 4 pm. (closed November 28-30 for Thanksgiving Holiday).

River Festival: A Resounding Success!

By: Jennifer Waters-White (DRNC Communications Coordinator)

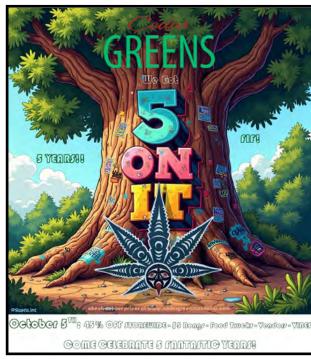

We're excited to share that the 2024 Dungeness River Festival made quite a splash! A heartfelt thank you to all the incredible volunteers and organizations that made this event possible—you truly are the champions behind River Fest.

With 23 booths showcasing a variety of activities, the day was filled with smiling faces and meaningful interactions. We estimate that over 1,200 attendees—from enthusiastic elementary school children to engaged adults in our community—joined us for a fantastic day at the park.

It was a busy, bustling celebration, and we can't wait to do it all again next year!
